Statement of Main Terms and Conditions of Employment

EMPLOYEE:

EMPLOYER: Wetton Cleaning Services Limited (“the Company”) Company Number) whose registered office is at Estate House, 2 Pembroke Road, Sevenoaks, Kent, TN13 1XR

DEPARTMENT:

POSITION:

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT: [.....]
or such other place as the Company shall reasonably require.

The following sets out the particulars of your terms and conditions of employment in accordance with the Employment Rights Act 1996 as amended. It is to be read in conjunction with your job offer letter and your job description, whichever most accurately reflects the work you are employed to do, and the contractual provisions of the Employee Handbook (also referred to as “the Handbook”). You must also read the Health and Safety Handbook.

1 EMPLOYMENT

1.1 Your employment began on which is also the start date of your period of continuous employment, inclusive of any employment transferred to the Company.

1.2 No period of employment with a previous employer (save unless you transferred as above) counts as part of your continuous period of employment with the Company.

- 1.3 You are usually based at the place set out in the preamble to this Statement but it is a condition of your employment that you travel to and work at any of the Company's other sites or such other place as the Company designates in accordance with the needs of the business.
- 1.4 Your immediate line of reporting is to the Site Supervisor/Manager ("your Manager").
- 1.5 The continuation of your employment depends on the successful completion of a probationary period of 6 months commencing on the starting date of your employment. Your performance and conduct will be monitored and assessed during the probation period. If the Company finds that you do not meet its standards or are otherwise unsuitable for continuing in employment, the Company may either extend your probationary period or terminate your employment. You will be entitled to the notice period provided in this contract unless your competence or conduct is so seriously deficient that summary termination is warranted.
- 1.6 Your current job description is set out in Appendix A to these terms and conditions. However, the Company reserves the right to change your job description at any time in accordance with operational needs. It is a condition of your employment that you agree to perform such other duties and work in such other departments or sites as the Company may require from time to time, including taking over duties of employees who are absent from work for any reason whatsoever.

2 SECONDARY EMPLOYMENT

- 2.1 The Company insists on a high degree of loyalty and co-operation from its employees. You are expected to devote your whole time and attention to the best interests of the Company during your working hours and may not undertake any other work during this time.
- 2.2 You may not without the prior consent of the Company (which will not be unreasonably withheld) engage in any business or employment which is similar to or competitive with the business of the Company, or which could be considered to impair your ability to act at all times in the best interests of the Company, outside your hours of work for the Company.
- 2.3 If you do seek to engage in any other employment, you must notify the Company in writing of hours you propose to work elsewhere to enable the Company to comply with its statutory obligations. If consent is given by the Company for you to work elsewhere outside your working hours with the Company, you must notify the Company in writing of hours worked elsewhere. You hereby agree that, if there is a conflict of hours between the Company and any secondary employer, the Company's working hours take priority.
- 2.4 Any of the following are strictly prohibited:

- 2.4.1 Employment with other cleaning companies whilst employed by the Company unless authorised by the Company and unless you give priority to the Company in the event of conflicting demands on your time.
- 2.4.2 Engaging in any other employment or undertaking part-time work without the written consent of a Director;
- 2.4.3 Whether by your own actions or the actions of a third party, seeking advantage for your own benefit (or that of another) through approaches to customers, suppliers or associates of the Company.

3 REMUNERATION

3.1 Your salary is paid at the rate of £..... per annum*/per hour. *As an hourly paid employee, you are paid for the hours of work actually carried out as claimed on your properly completed timesheet. Payment is net of tax and statutory deductions and is paid directly into your bank account by BACS every four weeks in arrears. Although the Company will do its best to ensure you are paid on time, it will not be responsible for any late payment.

3.2 You hereby agree that, in addition to other deductions as set out in the Handbook:

- 3.2.1 where absence is authorised but pay is not due, you will not be paid for the said absence;
- 3.2.2 in the event of unauthorised absence, the Company will withhold salary on a pro-rata basis in addition to taking any appropriate disciplinary action and you consent to the consequent deduction[s] from your salary.

3.3 HM Revenue and Customs contact and company reference number for all employees is in the Handbook.

3.4 Termination pay is processed at the end of the month following the date of termination and a P45 issued at the same time.

3.5 You agree that, subject to 7 days advance notification to you of the amount due to be deducted, the Company may recoup from you by way of deduction from your salary any overpayment or debt as provided in the Handbook including but not limited to:

- any overpayment made to you, including any overpayment of salary and expenses;
- any amount due for settling any outstanding debts to the Company for which you are personally responsible;
- any outstanding costs associated with certification and checks;
- any deduction necessitated by statute;
- absence by reason of any strike action;
- contractual obligations which you have incurred on behalf of the Company without the authority of the Company to make payment to a third party;
- any payments due from you by reason of the Order of a Court or Tribunal;
- any fines incurred by you which the Company has paid on your behalf;
- the cost of making good any loss or damage caused by you to Company property or client property, including materials and equipment.

3.6 You may be asked to carry out additional duties on a one off basis to which you will be paid accordingly. This work is undertaken voluntarily by you and does not form part of your contractual hours of work.

4 NORMAL HOURS OF WORK

4.1 Your normal hours of work may include working on Bank/Public holidays or such hours per week as required by your post with breaks to be taken as designated by your line manager. The actual times of work will vary according to the needs of the business and may involve evening or weekend working. You agree to work such additional hours or, from time to time, lower or no hours in accordance with operational needs. The Company reserves the right to place you on short-time working or lay-off and in those circumstances you will be paid for hours worked, or in accordance with statutory guarantee pay provisions.

4.2 When travel from your home to another office or site takes longer than the journey to your usual place of employment, you will be expected to leave home earlier and return late without additional remuneration. This includes travel which may from time to time involve staying overnight at or in the vicinity of the alternative work location.

4.3 Where your payslip for hourly work records hours worked in a particular week, there is no contractual obligation on the Company to provide similar hours in any subsequent week.

5 HOLIDAY ENTITLEMENT AND BOOKING

5.1 Unless otherwise set out in your Job Offer Letter, you are entitled to paid leave in accordance with current statutory provisions. All provisions relating to annual leave are set out in the Handbook.

5.2 The Company leave year runs from 1st April to 31st March. You are required to take your annual leave in that period. The Company does not permit leave to be carried over into a subsequent year.

5.3 Holiday pay is calculated at your normal rate of pay and does not include any non-contractual payment such as overtime.

5.4 Upon termination of employment, you will be paid for any unused holiday entitlement or, if you have exceeded the entitlement due up to the date of termination, you agree to the deduction of any excess holiday pay from your final salary payment.

6 SICK PAY

- 6.1 Statutory Sick Pay is paid for qualifying absences caused by illness, subject to your earnings level and compliance with the Company's absence reporting and certification procedures as set out in the Handbook.
- 6.2 The Company has the right to seek an independent medical opinion on your health. It is a condition of your employment that you agree to a medical examination and/or drug and alcohol testing should it be deemed by the Company to be necessary. The Company will pay the cost of any medical examination.
- 6.3 Failure to adhere to any aspect of the Company's policy regarding absence will result in disciplinary action.
- 6.4 The Company reserves the right to terminate your employment subject to any applicable statutory rights by giving you not less than one month's notice in writing if you are absent from work for a period or periods totalling 90 days in any twelve month period.

7 PENSION

- 7.1 Unless otherwise set out in your Job Offer Letter, the Company operates auto enrolment with National Employment Savings Trust (NEST). Further information on how this operates is in the Handbook under section 9. If you need further information about their pensions please contact NEST on 0300 020 0090 or email support@nestpensions.org.uk.
- 7.2 If you do not join any pension scheme offered by the Company, you will be contracted into the current secondary State Pension Scheme unless other personal pension arrangements have been made or according to current legislative requirements.

8 NOTICE

- 8.1 Unless otherwise stated in your Job Offer Letter, after 1 month's service and up to the satisfactory completion of the probation period as set out in the Job Offer Letter, you are required to give the Company 1 week's notice to terminate your employment.
- 8.2 After 3 months' service or on satisfactory completion of the probation period, whichever is the later, you are required to give the Company 1 month's notice to terminate your employment.
- 8.3 Subject to the provisions of Clause 8.1 and 8.2 above, the Company will give notice of termination of employment as follows:
- Up to the completion of two years' service, one week's notice;
 - For each additional completed year of service, one additional week's notice up to a maximum of 12 weeks.

8.4 The notice periods may be varied by mutual agreement.

8.5 The Company has the right to terminate your employment without notice or payment in lieu of notice in the case of serious incompetence or gross misconduct.

8.6 The Company has the right:

- to require you not to carry out your duties during the period of notice (i.e. to place you on garden leave) or at times when you are at risk of termination of employment;
- to require you to refrain from attending your place of work or other Company or client premises during the period of notice;
- to require to return all or specified items of Company property immediately on you giving or being given notice or being at risk of termination of employment;
- to pay you in lieu of notice.

8.7 If you terminate your employment without giving or working the required period of notice, you agree to the deduction from your final salary of an amount equal to any additional cost of covering your duties during the period not worked. In the event that this amount exceeds your final salary payment, you agree to reimburse the Company the amount due.

9 DISCIPLINARY AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

9.1 The disciplinary and grievance procedures, including provisions relating to suspension, are contained in the Company Handbook.

10 SECURITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

10.1 You are required to submit to personal searches and/or drug and alcohol testing as deemed necessary by the Company.

10.2 You must not disclose any secrets or other information of a confidential nature relating to the Company or its business, or in respect of any obligation of confidence which the Company owes to any third party, during or after your employment except in the proper course of your employment or as required by law.

10.3 Any documents or tangible items which belong to the Company or its clients which contain any confidential information must not be copied, photographed or retained in paper or any electronic form whatsoever. No such documents or tangible items may be removed from the Company's or its clients' premises at any time without genuine, validated need and proper authorisation. Where such authorisation is given, the prohibition on copying, photographing and keeping applies. Any such document or tangible item must be returned to the Company immediately upon request and/or upon the termination of your employment.

11 INVENTIONS/IMPROVEMENTS/PATENTS

- 11.1 By accepting the terms set out in this Statement, you agree to disclose to the Company any discovery or invention or improvement to an existing invention or process which you have discovered or invented or caused to be improved in the course of your employment, whether or not within working hours or on Company premises.
- 11.2 Any and all improvements, designs or inventions, whether capable of registration or not, made by you during the course of your employment with the Company, shall be the property of the Company and you hereby agree to sign all documents and do all necessary acts required to transfer title in such improvements or inventions to the Company without any additional compensation or payment, save for any expenses or disbursements incurred for the purposes of transferring title to the Company. Nothing in this clause shall affect any rights conferred by the Patents Act 1977, the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, the Copyright (Computer Programs) Regulations 1992 or any other relevant legislation currently in force.

12 RETURN OF COMPANY PROPERTY

- 12.1 On the termination of your employment or, if the Company so requires, on giving or receiving notice of termination of employment or at any time when the Company deems you may be at risk of termination of employment, you must return all Company property in good order on the date and at the time designated by the Company, failing which you agree to the deduction from your final salary of the value of such items or, if the value of the retained items exceeds the amount of your final salary, the Company will be entitled to recover from you its property or the value thereof.
- 12.2 In circumstances where you are absent from work for any reason, whether or not on grounds of health or on holiday or suspended from work, the Company has the right to require the return of any item of its property which has been entrusted to you, including but not limited to any motor vehicle, computer or mobile telephone equipment, machinery, tools, company materials, uniform and ID Cards.
- 12.3 All Company property must be returned in a state of cleanliness and in good repair.
